Holy Baptism

Holy Baptism may be celebrated at the beginning of the Mass before the Opening Acclamations or immediately following the Homily before the Passing of the Peace.

Making the sign of the cross, the Celebrant begins

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever.
Amen.

In place of the above, from Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

In Lent and on other penitential occasions

Celebrant: Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
People: His mercy endures forever.

The Celebrant then continues

Celebrant: There is one Body and one Spirit;
People: There is one hope in God's call to us;
Celebrant: One Lord, one faith, one Baptism;
People: One God and Father of all.
Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And with your spirit.

With hands extended, the Celebrant says

Celebrant: Let us pray.
Almighty God, who by our baptism into the death and resurrection of Your Son Jesus Christ turns us from the old life of sin: Grant that we, being reborn to new life in Him, may live in righteousness and holiness all our days; through Your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Celebrant may address the congregation, instructing them as to the importance and significance of Baptism. The Celebrant continues:

Celebrant: The Candidate(s) for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

Adults and Older Children

The candidates who are able to answer for themselves are presented individually by their sponsors, as follows:

A Person appointed leads the following petitions

The Celebrant says

Celebrant: Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ Your Son may live in the power of His resurrection and look for Him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and forever. Amen.

Thanksgiving Over the Water

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And with your spirit.

Celebrant: We thank You, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it You led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it Your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in His death. By it we share in His resurrection. Therefore in joyful obedience to Your Son, we bring into His fellowship those who come to Him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water

Celebrant: Now sanctify this water, we pray You, by power of the Holy Spirit, that this child(or, this Your servant) may receive the full blessing of Your covenant and forever remain in the faith through Jesus Christ our Lord.

To Him, to You, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

The Baptism

For a Child, the Celebrant says to the parents

Celebrant: Name this child.

For an Adult, the Celebrant says to the candidate

Celebrant: What is your name?

Each candidate is presented by name to the Celebrant, or the assistant priest or deacon, who then pours water upon the candidate saying:

Celebrant: N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

When this action has been completed for all candidates, the Bishop or Celebrant, at a place in full sight of the congregation, prays over them, saying

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank You that by water and the Holy Spirit You have bestowed upon this/these Your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in Your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all Your works. Amen.

At a place in full sight of the congregation, the Bishop or priest anoints the newly baptized with sacred chrism and prays over them saying Celebrant: N., I receive you into the congregation of Christ's flock and sign you with the sign of the cross in token that hereafter you will not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and with courage and resolve to fight under His banner against sin, the world and the devil; and to continue as Christ's faithful soldier and servant to your life's end. Amen.

Celebrant: N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own forever. Amen.

Presentation of the Candle

Optional: At this time, a baptismal candle may be lit from the Christ Candle and given to the Candidate (or parents for the baptism of a child) saying:

Celebrant: N., receive the light of Christ as a sign of the new life rekindled within you. Keep the grace of your Baptism, and take the light of Christ forth into the world.

Welcome the Newly Baptized

The Celebrant turns to the congregation.

Celebrant: Let us welcome the newly baptized.

People: We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim His resurrection, and share with us in His eternal priesthood.

If the Baptism was celebrated at the beginning of the Mass, the Mass continues with the Gloria or Kyrie. If the Baptism was celebrated after the Homily, the Mass continues with the Passing of the Peace.

Holy Matrimony

PRE-MUSIC...PROCESSIONAL MUSIC

The Celebrant addresses the congregation and says:

Celebrant: Dearly beloved: We have come together in the presence of God to witness and bless the joining together of this man and this woman in Holy Matrimony. The bond and covenant of marriage was established by God in creation, and our Lord Jesus Christ adorned this manner of life by His presence and first miracle at a wedding in Cana of Galilee. It signifies to us the mystery of the union between Christ and His Church, and Holy Scripture commands it to be honored among all people.

The union of husband and wife in heart, body, and mind is intended by God for their mutual joy, and for the help and comfort given one another in prosperity and adversity; and, when it is God's will, for the procreation of children and their nurture in the knowledge and love of the Lord. Therefore marriage is not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, deliberately, and in accordance with the purposes for which it was instituted by God.

Into this holy union N.N. and N.N. now come to be joined. If any of you can show just cause why they may not lawfully be married, speak now, or else forever hold your peace.

Then the Celebrant says to the persons to be married:

Celebrant: I require and charge you both, here in the presence of God, that if either of you know any reason why you may not be united in marriage lawfully, and in accordance with God's Word, you do now confess it.

The Declaration of Consent

The Celebrant says to the woman:

Celebrant: N., will you have this man to be your husband, to live together in the covenant of marriage? Will you love him, comfort him, honor and keep him, in sickness and in health, and, forsaking all others, be faithful to him as long as you both shall live?

The woman answers:

I will.

The Celebrant says to the man:

Celebrant: N., will you have this woman to be your wife; to live together in the covenant of marriage? Will you love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, be faithful to her as long as you both shall live?

The man answers:

I will.

The Celebrant then addresses the congregation, saying

Celebrant: Will all of you witnessing these promises do all in your power to uphold these two persons in their marriage?

People: We will.

Celebrant: Who gives this woman to be married to this man?

Response: I (we) do.

The Ministry Of The Word

The Celebrant then says to the people

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Celebrant: O gracious and everliving God, You have created us male and female in Your image: Look mercifully upon this man and this woman who come to You seeking Your blessing, and assist them with Your grace, that with true fidelity and steadfast love they may honor and keep the promises and vows they make; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

The congregation will be seated.

The Sermon

The Vows

If there is a bridal party, the Celebrant instructs the bridal party to come forward to stand with the Bride & Groom.

Celebrant: Take her right hand.

The man, facing the woman and taking her right hand in his, says:

Man: In the Name of God, I, N., take you, N., to be my wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, until we are parted by death. This is my solemn vow.

Celebrant: Take his right hand.

Then they loose their hands, and the woman, still facing the man, takes his right hand in hers, and says:

Woman: In the Name of God, I, N., take you, N., to be my husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, until we are parted by death. This is my solemn vow.

The Rings

They loose their hands. The Priest may ask God's blessing on a ring or rings as follows:

Celebrant:

Bless, O Lord, these rings to be a sign of the vows by which this man and this woman have bound themselves to each other; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The man places the ring on the ring-finger of the woman's hand and says:

Man: N., I give you this ring as a symbol of my vow, and with all that I am and all that I have, I honor you, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The woman places the ring on the ring-finger of the man's hand and says:

Woman: N., I give you this ring as a symbol of my vow, and with all that I am and all that I have, I honor you, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Then the Celebrant joins the right hands of husband and wife and says:

Celebrant: Now that N. and N. have given themselves to each other by solemn vows, with the joining of hands and the giving and receiving of their rings, I pronounce that they are husband and wife, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Optional: The Priest joins their hands and ties them with the stole.

The Celebrant continues:

Celebrant: Those whom God has joined together let no one put asunder.

People: Amen.

The Prayers

The Celebrant or other person appointed reads the following prayers, to which the people respond, saying, Amen

Please Stand.

Let us pray.

Eternal God, creator and preserver of all life, author of salvation, and giver of all grace: Look with favor upon the world You have made, and for which Your Son gave his life, and especially upon this man and this woman whom You make one flesh in Holy Matrimony.

Amen.

Give them wisdom and devotion in the ordering of their common life, that each may be to the other a strength in need, a counselor in perplexity, a comfort in sorrow, and a companion in joy.

Amen.

Grant that their wills may be so knit together in Your will, and their spirits in Your Spirit, that they may grow in love and peace with You and one another all the days of their life.

Amen.

Give them grace, when they hurt each other, to recognize and acknowledge their fault, and to seek each other's forgiveness and Yours.

Amen.

Make their life together a sign of Christ's love to this sinful and broken world, that unity may overcome estrangement, forgiveness heal guilt, and joy conquer despair.

Amen.

Bestow on them, if it is Your will, the gift and heritage of children, and the grace to bring them up to know You, to love You, and to serve You.

Amen.

Give them such fulfillment of their mutual affection that they may reach out in love and concern for others.

Amen.

Grant that all married persons who have witnessed these vows may find their lives strengthened and their loyalties confirmed.

Amen.

Grant that the bonds of our common humanity, by which all Your children are united one to another, and the living to the dead, may be so transformed by Your grace, that Your will may be done on earth as it is in heaven where, O Father, with Your Son and the Holy Spirit, You live and reign in perfect unity, now and forever.

Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And with your spirit.

The service continues with the Offertory.

Communion is now distributed to all who are baptized.

After Communion

Celebrant:

O God, the giver of all that is true and lovely and gracious: We give You thanks for binding us together in these holy mysteries of the Body and Blood of Your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that by Your Holy Spirit, N. and N., in holy Matrimony may become one in heart and soul, live in fidelity and peace, and obtain those eternal joys prepared for all who love You; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing Of The Marriage

The people remain standing. The husband and wife kneel, and the Celebrant says

Celebrant: Most gracious God, we give You thanks for Your tender love in sending Jesus Christ to come among us, to be born of a human mother, and to make the way of the cross to be the way of life. We thank You, also, for consecrating the union of man and woman in his Name. By the power of Your Holy Spirit, pour out the abundance of Your blessing upon this man and this woman. Defend them from every enemy. Lead them into all peace. Let their love for each other be a seal upon their hearts, a mantle about their shoulders, and a crown upon their foreheads.

Bless them in their work and in their companionship; in their sleeping and in their waking in their joys and in their sorrows; in their life and in their death. Finally, in Your mercy, bring them to that table where Your saints feast forever in Your heavenly home; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant adds this blessing:

Celebrant: God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favor look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace that you may faithfully live together in this life, and in the age to come have life everlasting. Amen

Presentation of the Newlywed Couple

Celebrant: Ladies and Gentleman, I present to you,
Names of newlywed couple

The Burial of the Dead

Reception of the Body

The Celebrant meets the body at the door of the church and says:

With faith in Jesus Christ, we receive the body of our brother/sister N. for burial. Let us pray with confidence to God, the giver of life, that He will raise him/her to perfection in the company of the saints.

Silence may be kept; after which the Celebrant says:

Deliver Your servant, N., O Sovereign Lord Christ, from all evil, and set him/her free from every bond, that he/she, may rest with all Your saints in the eternal habitations, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit You live and reign, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us also pray for all who mourn, that they may cast their care on God, and know the consolation of His love.

Silence may be kept; after which the Celebrant says:

Almighty God, look with pity upon the sorrows of Your servants for whom we pray. Remember them, Lord, in mercy; nourish them patience; comfort them with a sense of Your goodness; lift up Your countenance upon them and give them peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All stand for the procession. The Celebrant leads, then the body, then the family may follow. While processing the Celebrant says the following. A hymn, psalm, or some other suitable anthem may be sung instead.

I am Resurrection and I am Life, says the Lord. Whoever has faith in me shall have life, even though he die. And everyone who has life, and has committed himself to me in faith, shall not die forever.

As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last He will stand upon the earth. After my awaking, He will raise me up; and in my body I shall see God. I myself shall see, and my eyes behold him who is my friend and not a stranger.

For none of us has life in himself, and none becomes his own master when he dies. For if we have life, we are alive in the Lord, and if we die, we die in the Lord. So, then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's possession. Happy from now on are those who die in the Lord! So it is, says the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.

When all are in place, the Celebrant may address the congregation, acknowledging briefly the purpose of the gathering, and bidding their prayers for the bereaved. If desired, the Celebrant may continue the service with the Opening Acclamation, Collect for Purity, the Gloria, and other songs of praise. Otherwise, the service continues below with the Collect of the Day.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Silence may be kept; after which the Celebrant says one of the following Collects.

At the Burial of an Adult

O God, who by the glorious resurrection of Your Son Jesus Christ destroyed death, and brought life and immortality to light: Grant that Your servant _____, being raised with Him, may know the strength of His presence and rejoice in His eternal glory; who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

or

O God of grace and glory, we remember before You this day our brother/sister _____. We thank You for giving him/her to us, his/her family and friends, to know and to love as a companion on our earthly pilgrimage. In Your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth, until, by Your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the Burial of a Child

O God, whose beloved Son took children into His arms and blessed them: Give us grace to entrust _____ to Your never-failing care and love, and bring us all to Your heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Celebrant may add the following prayer:

Most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding: Deal graciously with _____ in their grief. Surround them with Your love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in Your goodness, and strength to meet the days to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

Between the readings a suitable hymn, song, or canticle may be sung or said.
If there is to be Communion, a passage from the Gospel always concludes the Readings.

Hear us, Lord.

You promised paradise to the thief who repented and have brought our brother/sister to the joys of heaven.
Hear us, Lord.

Having been washed in Baptism and anointed with the Holy Spirit; You have given him/her fellowship with all Your saints.
Hear us, Lord.

Having been nourished with Your Body and Blood, You have granted him a place at the table in Your heavenly kingdom.
Hear us, Lord.

Comfort us in our sorrows at the death of our brother/sister; let our faith be our consolation, and eternal life our hope.
Hear us, Lord.

Silence may be kept. The Celebrant concludes with the following or some other prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to You our brother/sister _____ . Grant that his/her death may recall to us Your victory over death, and be an occasion for us to renew our trust in Your Father's love. Give us, we pray, the faith to follow where You have led the way, and where You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, to the ages of ages. Amen.

When there is no Communion, the service continues with the Commendation, or with the Committal.*

The service continues with the Offertory.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God, we thank You that in Your great love You have fed us with the spiritual food and drink of the Body and Blood of Your Son Jesus Christ, and have given us a foretaste of Your heavenly banquet. Grant that this Sacrament may be to us a comfort in affliction, and a pledge of our inheritance in that kingdom where there is no death, neither sorrow nor crying, but the fullness of joy with all Your saints; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

If the body is not present, the service continues with the [blessing and] dismissal.

Unless the Committal follows immediately in the church, the following Commendation is used.

The Commendation

The Celebrant and other ministers take their places at the body. This anthem, or some other suitable anthem, or a hymn, may be sung or said

Celebrant: Give rest, O Christ, to Your servant(s) with Your saints,
People: where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Celebrant: You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind, and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did You ordain when You created me, saying, "You are dust, and to dust you shall return." All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

People: Give rest, O Christ, to Your servant(s) with Your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

The Celebrant, facing the body, says

Into Your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend Your servant_____. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech You, a sheep of Your own fold, a lamb of Your own flock, a sinner of Your own redeeming. Receive him/her into the arms of Your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

The Celebrant, or the Bishop if present, may then bless the people, and a Deacon or other Minister may dismiss them, saying:

Celebrant: Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God.

As the body is borne from the church, a hymn, or one or more of these anthems may be said.

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and giving life to those in the tomb.

The Sun of Righteousness is gloriously risen, giving light to those who sat in darkness and in the shadow of death.

The Lord will guide our feet into the way of peace, having taken away the sin of the world.

Christ will open the kingdom of heaven to all who believe in his Name, saying, "Come, O blessed of my Father; inherit the kingdom prepared for you."

Into paradise may the angels lead you. At your coming may the martyrs receive you, and bring you into the holy city Jerusalem.

The Committal

The following anthem is said or sung:

Everyone the Father gives to Me will come to Me;
I will never turn away anyone who believes in Me.

He who raised Jesus Christ from the dead will also give new life to our mortal bodies through His indwelling Spirit.

My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;
my body also shall rest in hope.

You will show me the path of life;
in Your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in Your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

The Consecration of a Grave

If the grave is in a place that has not previously been set apart for Christian burial, the Celebrant may use the following prayer, either before the service of Committal or at some other time.

O God, whose blessed Son was laid in a sepulcher in the garden: Bless, we pray, this grave, and grant that he/she whose body is (is to be) buried here may dwell with Christ in paradise, and may come to Your heavenly kingdom; through Your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, while earth is cast upon the coffin, the Celebrant says these words

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to Almighty God our brother/sister N., and we commit his/her body to the ground; * earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The Lord bless him/her and keep him/her, the Lord make his face to shine upon him/her and be gracious to him/her, the Lord lift up his countenance upon him/her and give him/her peace. Amen.

Or the deep, or the elements, or its resting place.*

The Celebrant says:

The Lord be with you

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Then may be said

Rest eternal grant to him/her, O Lord;

And let light perpetual shine upon him/her.

May his/her soul, and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

The Celebrant dismisses the people with these words

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Celebrant Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.
